*Statutes governing work hours for 14- and 15-year-olds use the phrase, "while school is in session", for the three-hour day, 18-hour week. California provides no precise definition of this phrase. However, the phrase is also used in federal regulations from which California's standard is derived. [29 CFR 570.35(a)] The U.S. Department of Labor considers the phrase " when school is in session" to mean the scheduled schooldays of the public school system in the county where the minor resides. A school week under federal standards is any week during which school is in session for at least one day. Thus, school is considered in session during any week that has at least one scheduled schoolday. Since the school session is derived from the schedule for the county's public schools, school may be considered in session for a minor who attends a private school that is closed during the summer if the public schools are in session at that same time.

A "schoolday" is any day that the minor is required to attend school for 240 minutes or more. [LC 1391(b)]

"Personal attendant" is defined in IWC Order 15-2001, Section 2(J). Also see "Household Occupations" in Chapter 7 of this booklet.
